

Finnish Marine Industry is:

Economically significant:

the industry's revenue is expected to increase to ~ 10 billion

Diverse:

our extensive network delivers solutions for all ship types and maritime structures globally

Forerunner:

in cruise ships, ferries, special vessels, icebreakers, environmental technologies, digital solutions and arctic technologies

Responsible:

leading provider of intelligent solutions reducing the emissions of maritime transport

Innovative:

cooperation and the ability to solve demanding technical challenges have resulted in many internationally acknowledged references

The industry's future success requires:

Know-how and innovations

- Skilled professionals with various educational backgrounds
- Long-term RDI

Supportive operational environment

- The global regulation of maritime transport must be foreseeable and ambitious
- Investing in the internationalization of SMEs

Finnish Marine Industry in the Finnish Society

Finnish marine industry employs 30 000 people

Annual turnover 8 billion €

1 000 companies in the industry

Source: Brahea Centre at the University of Turku

Marine industry consists of:

— Marine equipment manufacturers

— Turnkey suppliers

— Design offices

— System suppliers

— Software providers

— Shipbuilding, ship repair and offshore yards